

THE BIG EUROPEAN EXCHANGE

Best practices at the heart of the conference that will feature European municipalities engaged in integrated urban planning. Renewable energy, efficiency, mobility and participation will be the focus of the meeting.

16th Aprile 2021

from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm

For information energia@legambiente.it

citiesmultiply.eu

PROGRAM

9:00
OPENING OF THE VIRTUAL SPACE ON ZOOM

9:30
WELCOME
Edoardo Zanchini
National Vice-President of Legambiente

TECHNICAL INFORMATION
Tommaso Polci
Energy Office of Legambiente

INTRODUCES AND COORDINATES
Rupert Wronski
Project Coordinator

Boris Hocks
as CEO of Generation.Energy
The importance of integrated planning

I - ENERGY SESSION

Christian Apl
Vice-Mayor of Perchtoldsdorf (Austria)
Perchtoldsdorf says yes, we decarb!

Dr. Jörg-W. Fromme
Managing partner at Dr. Fromme International Consulting (DFIC) (Germany)
Former horse racing track Recklinghausen Hillerheide – 100 % local renewable heat supplied quarter

Gergely Tóth
Strategic and Development Officer of Ajka (Hungary)
District-wide collaboration to expand renewable energy utilization capacity

Jan Johansson
Örebro Municipality (Sweden)
Best practice example regarding energy from Örebro Municipality

Maurizio Olivieri
Deputy to environment of Montechiarugolo (Italy)
Renewable Energy Common Good. The development of a municipal energy policy

Tomasz Bońdos
Energy Management Team Leader (Poland)
Bydgoszcz on the road to energy self-sufficiency

11:20 - 11:40
BREAK

II - EFFICIENCY SESSION

COORDINATOR
Friedrich Hofer
Climate Alliance Austria

Magdalena Faracik
Nowak, Head of Department of City Development (Poland)
Siemianowice Śląskie - for a weekend and for life

Michelangelo Giansiracusa
Mayor of Ferla (Italy)
Ferla, Good practices of urban regeneration and energy efficiency

Jan Johansson
Örebro Municipality (Sweden)
Best practice example regarding efficiency from Örebro Municipality

Sándor Szabó
Grant Coordinator of Budaörs (Hungary)
Introduction of an energy monitoring platform for public buildings

Armin Bobsien
climate protection manager in Emmendingen (Germany)
Energiehaus Emmendingen – a municipal campaign to improve housing energy efficiency

Rainer Handlfinger
Mayor of Ober-Grafendorf (Austria)
Eco road” A new approach to local road planning and construction for communities

CONCLUSIONS
Friedrich Hofer
Climate Alliance Austria

13:10 - 14:30
LUNCH BREAK

III - TRANSPORT SESSION

COORDINATOR
Simone Nuglio
Legambiente

József Braun
Transportation expert of the XIII. District, Budapest (Hungary)
Introduction of a smart-parking system in a heavy-traffic capital district

Emil Sandström
Umeå Municipality (Sweden)
Best practice example regarding transport from Umeå Municipality

Barbara Kulmer
Office for environment and mobility of Weiz (Austria)
Sustainable Mobility in a small town: is it possible?

Marta Głosek
Acting Head of the Office for Planning and Integrated Development (Poland)
Ecological transport solutions in Ostrołęka - present state and development prospects

Simone Canteri
General Director, ACSM S.p.A, Primiero San Martino di Castrozza (Italy)
Electric mobility project in Primiero Valley – from water to the wheel

15:50 - 16:05
BREAK

IV SESSION PARTICIPATION

COORDINATOR
Kata Györi
Energiaklub Climate Policy Institut

Kay Gätgens
Head of district exchange Eimsbüttel (Germany)
Climate-friendly Lokstedt - Transdisciplinary research project on climate protection and district development

Zoltán Fülöp
Mayor of Sopronkövesd (Hungary)
Elaboration of a 'green city' image and enhancement of local engagement

Eliza Bujalska
vice Mayor of Mińsk Mazowiecki (Poland)
Creating good smart districts based on user needs analysis methods and audits of social services and public spaces - Human Smart Cities project

Karin Böhler
Communication and public relations of Rankweil (Austria)
Communication strategy to increase public interest for the development of the urban center

Giorgia Salvatori
Civil Councilor of Campi Bisenzio (Italy)
New collaborative alliances: innovation that starts from the territories

Gunilla Isgren
Botkyrka municipality (Sweden)
Best practice example regarding communication from Botkyrka Municipality

CONCLUSIONS BY
Kata Györi
Energiaklub Climate Policy Institut

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 785088

The event will be in english and translation services will be available for Hungarian, Polish, Italian. Participation is free, but you must register on the form on the site citiesmultiply.eu